FOOD AND DRINK

PASTETEN, TERRINEN & SÜLZEN einfach & gut PÂTÉS, TERRINES & BRAWN

Joana Gimbutyte / Josef Mosshammer

ISBN 978-3-7020-2079-8
128 pages, 21 x 26.5 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 24.90

Publication date: October 2023

Pâtés, terrines and brawn always look beautiful and just taste so fantastic. And it turns out that creating them is not as difficult as one might think. In the introduction, the authors pass on to us everything they know about pâtés, terrines and brawn, etc. and describe how to prepare them using step-by-step photographs. Basic recipes for various pastries, useful information on stuffings and fillings as well as the equipment we would need, including a variety of baking tins, are all included. Both traditional French-style as well as modern creations are included in the 50 or so recipes in this book.

BÄUERINNEN BACKEN traditionelles Festgebäck FARMERS' WIVES BAKING FESTIVE PASTRIES

ISBN 978-3-7020-2080-4
128 pages, 21 x 26.5 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 21

Publication date: October 2023

Throughout the year, the various regions celebrate holidays and festivals by baking a range of typical breads, doughnuts, striezel, pretzels, stollen, etc. This book contains over 100 recipes for traditional festive cakes and pastries including regional specialities such as Ahrntaler Topfnudel and Tyrolean Zelten as well as age old peasant recipes for great-grandma's Honigbusserl and Butterstoeri up to modern day creations which include the favourite recipes of our farmers' wives from Austria, Bavaria, Baden-Wuerttemberg and South Tyrol.

TRUDE-OMA KOCHT, BACKT & REDET GRANDMA TRUDE COOKS, BAKES & CHATS

Kathrin Stefan (publisher)

ISBN 978-3-7020-2082-8
104 pages, 17 x 24 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 19.90

Publication date: October 2023

Gertrude Lechner, known as Grandma Trude, owes her popularity in social media to her granddaughter Kathrin, who's been posting videos of her grandma for around three years. The first video was viewed over 100,000 times in no time at all. Most of her fans are particularly keen on Grandma Trude's old recipes since the publication of a book with her favourite recipes was first mentioned. The project has now come to pass: there is a section on recipes containing the 40 best recipes which include tried and tested classics but also long-established recipes from days of yore (e.g. Wurstfleckerl [sausage pasta] or meat dumplings). Each recipe is illustrated, there are facsimiles of old, hand-written recipes as well as illustrated instructions and photographs of Grandma Trude in action.

CIDER, MOST & APFELWEIN Selbst gemacht CIDER, MUST & APPLE WINE Home-made

Karl Stückler

ISBN 978-3-7020-2077-4
152 pages, 16.5 x 22 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 21.90

Publication date: May 2023

It could be a delicate sweet must, an alcoholic must, apple wine or a sparkling cider: apples and pears can happily be converted into tasty drinks. Must under fermentation has long ago put aside its image of an alcoholic drink made only for home consumption. In this book, Karl Stückler passes on everything he knows about the production of must under fermentation, sweet musts and ciders, and makes sure it works for both beginners and professionals. The chapters start off by covering the proper sorting of the fruit, continue with descriptions of the various possibilities for treating the pressed juices and end up with the subject of filling and storage. Practical tips and valuable advice help to turn home-made ciders, must and apple wines into a veritable taste experience.

MEHR IS' MEHR Rezepte aus aller Welt ohne Rücksicht auf Verluste
MORE IS MORE Recipes from around the world and never mind what's lost

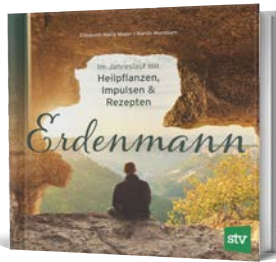

Gerhard Dragschitz / Motion Cooking

ISBN 978-3-7020-2083-5
128 pages, 21 x 26.5 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 24.90

Publication date: October 2023

With nearly 400,000 followers, Gerhard Dragschitz is one of Austria's most successful food bloggers on social media. He focusses on what matters most – taste. Originally from Austria's Burgenland, now living in Styria, he takes favourite foods from around the world such as banh mi, the New York pastrami sandwich and Belgian waffles, putting them to the test, and refines them even further. This publication is all about the priceless value of precious ingredients, learning to develop a little patience and, of course, about the pure joy of eating.

HEALTH AND NATURAL COSMETICS

ERDENMANN Im Jahreslauf mit Heilpflanzen,
Impulsen & Rezepten

EARTH MAN Medicinal Plants, Impulses & Recipes Throughout the Year

Elisabeth Maria Mayer, Martin Wundsam

ISBN 978-3-7020-2078-1
180 pages, 22 x 22 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 24.90

Publication date: September 2023

Nature passes through eight phases over the course of the year from Candlemas through the Spring equinox, covering the Mayfest, the summer solstice and the light festivals of Christmas. It is a cycle that also has great significance in the life of human beings and is specifically presented here in relation to men in this book – it covers a new consciousness for the wonders of life as well as for herbalism and wild herb cuisine. The descriptions of appearance, quality and character of each phase as well as the seasonal customs and recipes for foods, drinks and natural cosmetics are matched up with the eight different seasons.

HOBBIES, CRAFTS & HANDIWORK

MAGICAL DREAMCATCHERS AND MANDALAS
More than 30 crocheting ideas for the home

Claudia Rieger

ISBN 978-3-7020-2085-9
120 pages, 21 x 28 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 18.90

Publication date: September 2023

This book introduces a special technique for crocheting dreamcatchers and mandalas into rings (= ring mandalas). This gives the items a certain stability and they can be hung up on the wall as well as being free hanging without losing their shape. Each is a beautiful decoration in itself for the living room. The 30 instructions include the most important basic information: material and amount, needle size and colour sequence, stitches and tips.

NATURE AND FORESTRY

AGRAR-REBELLION JETZT

AGRARIAN REBELLION NOW

Reading about Nature – Understanding
Permaculture – Building for the Future

Sepp Holzer, Josef A. Holzer

ISBN 978-3-7020-2076-7

200 pages, 16.5 x 22 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 24.90

Publication date: November 2023

There is a future on the other side of monoculture, intensive livestock farming and the overexploitation of nature. The bestselling authors, “Agrarian Rebels”, Sepp Holzer and his son, Josef A. Holzer are convinced of this. They show us that sustainable cultivation is possible by adapting concepts to local habitats. These permaculture experts confront the climate change crisis with knowledge, creativity, experience and the conviction that Mother Nature can provide us with solutions.

ALLES VOM SCHAF! Erfolgreich produzieren & selbst vermarkten

IT'S ALL ABOUT SHEEP! Producing and marketing

Thomas und Gerhild Koch

ISBN: 978-3-7020-2073-6

152 pages, 16.5 x 22 cm, hardcover
Approx. € 24,90

Publication date: September 2023

Thomas and Gerhild Koch sell lamb, wool pellets, lamb noodles, skins and fur and sheep's cheese out of their own farm shop. These successful sheep farmers, together with experts in the field, describe what matters most when it comes to fattening sheep, the production of sheep's milk and the public image, the presentation. The authors are aiming to motivate us to explore new horizons. To do this, they have also introduced a section on the zero-waste idea.

TIERE SIND AUCH NUR MENSCHEN
Neue lustige Geschichten aus dem Leben

ANIMALS ARE HUMAN TOO
Entertaining new stories from the life
of a country vet

Hans Christ

ISBN 978-3-85365-342-5
216 pages, 13 x 20.5 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 19,90

Publication date: October 2023

In this, the seventh volume of entertaining animal stories, Dr. Hans Christ, the veterinarian from Salzburg, once again proves himself to be a worthy successor to the popular television vet Dr. James Herriot. The same applies to both these vets: it's frequently not just the animals requiring veterinary treatment, but it is often their owners who need the vet's advice, support and attention. The Austrian country vet's experiences confirm that old journalist's adage: true stories are usually the best stories.

WURZELATLAS MITTELEUROPÄISCHER
WALDBÄUME
Root Atlas: Central European Trees and Shrubs

Lore Kutschera / Erwin Lichtenegger

ISBN 978-3-7020-0928-0
3rd edition, 604 pages, 188 drawings, 182 colour plates with 1200 pictures, 21 x 29.7 cm, hardcover
Approx. € 198.00

Publication date: September 2023

In this work, the fully exposed root systems of 78 trees and shrubs are presented and described in 188 drawings and 1200 colour images. The overall presentation is complemented by the explanation of the anatomical root structure based on root sections. This representation also presents clearly the impact of environmental influences on the root shape. The extensive illustrative material forms the basis for general and species-specific descriptions, and thus serves to illustrate the different habitat requirements of the species.

HUNTING AND FISHING BOOKS

IM SCHWARZWILDREVIER Jagderlebnisse, Hegemaßnahmen, Wildbret veredeln
WILD BOAR TERRITORY Hunting experiences, game-keeping, preservation measures

Ronald Schmidt

ISBN 978-3-7020-2090-3
160 pages, 15x23 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 24,90

Publication date: September 2023

Hunting wild boar is a subject frequently discussed. The damage caused by wild boars to fields and to agricultural crops result in various efforts to reduce the wild boar population as much as possible. But it seems that distraction feeding and bait site feeding are not effective. The author takes a different approach and wants to pass on his knowledge garnered over many years to other hunters.

BUNTES JÄGERLEBEN
Die Jagd früher und heute
THE VARIED LIFE OF A HUNTER
Hunting past and present

Wolf Behrndt

ISBN 978-3-7020-2089-7
176 pages, 15 x 23 cm, hardcover,
Approx. € 24.90

Publication date: September 2023

The author vividly portrays group hunting and drive hunts and describes the classical hunting of duck, geese, roe deer, red deer, fallow deer, mouflon and wild boar etc. He sets great store by the hunter's behaviour towards the animal and towards his fellow hunters. Also included are reviews and forecasts concerning hunting and how very much our immediate environment is affected by the changes in the habitats, the decline of so many species and climate change.

FISCHE, KREBSE & MUSCHELN IN HEIMISCHEN SEEN UND FLÜSSEN
FISH, CRUSTACEANS & MUSSELS IN DOMESTIC LAKES AND RIVERS

Wolfgang Hauer

ISBN 978-3-7020-1897-9

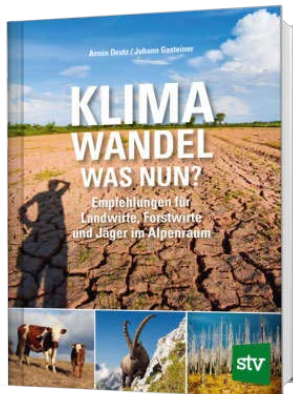

2nd edition, 244 pages, 370 colour illustrations, 22 x 24 cm, hardcover

Approx. € 29.90

Publication date: October 2023

There are some 120 different species of fish and crustaceans to be found in our domestic streams, rivers and lakes, and it is not always easy to distinguish between the different species. The author, an outstanding expert and photographer of these creatures, has put together a unique guide for all these species with information on whether they are indigenous, have immigrated or have been imported. This book is so impressive, not just because of its precise and brief descriptions of the individual species, but especially thanks to its outstanding photographs and the detailed views which are so necessary for a proper identification.

NATURE AND ENVIRONMENT

KLIMAWANDEL – WAS NUN? Empfehlungen für

CLIMATE CHANGE – WHAT NEXT? Advice for farmers, foresters and hunters in the Alps

Armin Deutz, Johann Gasteiner

ISBN 978-3-7020-2091-0
128 pages, 16.5 x 22 cm, hardcover
Approx. € 19,90

Publication date: December 2023

Climate change particularly affects anyone who works in contact with nature: these include farmers, foresters and hunters. This book describes the changes that plants, farm animals and wildlife can expect to be affected by in the future. The authors describe strategies which may help to mitigate some of the effects of global warming. They provide information on innovative stable and barn construction as well as appropriate feeding strategies for wildlife and include concepts for site appropriate forest management.

BEEKEEPING

KÖNIGINNENZUCHT Praxisanleitung für Imker QUEEN REARING Practice guide for Beekeepers

Gilles Fert / Klaus Nowotnick

ISBN 978-3-7020-1400-1
6th edition, 158 pages, numerous colour illustrations and graphics, 16.5 x 22 cm, hardcover
Approx. € 24.90

Publication date: November 2023

Queen rearing is one of the most important aspects in beekeeping. Every apiarist should know the relationship between queen rearing and a good honey yield. Young queens build strong colonies and reduce risks to the hive. Many apiarists, however, believe queen rearing is too complicated. The aim of this book is to impart the necessary knowledge about the basic principles and their practical implementation.
